Monthly publication for Cuballing, Yornaning and Popanyinning

October 2022

Wildflower season is here!

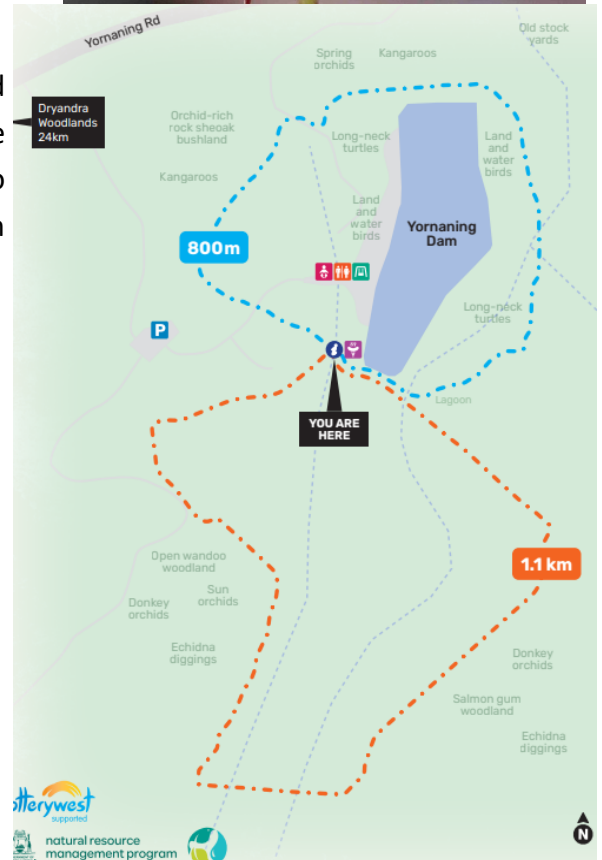

Are you looking for something to do on a nice spring day? How about taking a wildflower walk at one of the wildflower trails in Popanyinning? The trails branch off from the Popanyinning Oval. You will be pleasantly surprised by the wide trails and untouched bush. Be sure to follow the trail markers and stick to the trails, watch for traffic as you head east cross the highway to pick up the Qujo trail.

If you have already seen the Popanyinning trails then it is time to see Yornaning Dam in all its glory. Starting at the old tennis courts you will be pleasantly surprised by the abundance of donkey orchids who have made themselves at home amongst the old courts. Be sure to take your bike to test out the mountain bike trails—sign posted for ease of riding.

Take a picnic lunch, soak up the sunshine, spot the bird life and fauna then walk the trails surrounding the dam. The trails are signposted with arrows to ensure easy walking, please be sure to stick to the trails. If you venture off the trails your footprint can have more damage than you realise.

If you spot any damage to a marker, trail, sign or bike trail please be sure to report it to the Shire of Cuballing Office on 98836031 or cdo@cupalling.wa.gov.au

This will ensure the trails stay beautiful for others.

CUBALLING CEMETERY BUSY BEE

On Saturday 17th September a few hardly locals gathered at the Cuballing Cemetery. The morning was crisp, but the rain was staying at bay. The plan was to try to work out the occupants of several unmarked graves.

This is the dilemma:

- We know who is buried at the Cuballing Cemetery;
 - We know which graves are used – that is fairly obvious
- What we don't know is who is located in which grave.

However, someone be able to solve part of the puzzle. There are a few graves with no markers but have recent fresh flowers. We assume from this that someone knows who is in those graves. Anyone who knows the location of a friend or relative buried at the Cuballing Cemetery without a grave marker please let us know. We hope to be able to add a modest plaque or memorial on each grave, and it would be nice to have some confidence in who lies where.

While our intrepid group did not solve the mystery of who's who, they did not waste the opportunity. With gloves and tools and matches in hand they set out and got busy. Fallen branches were gathered and burned, dead and dying shrubs were removed, healthy shrubs were trimmed, graves were tended, weeds were removed and our historic country cemetery was shown some appreciation.

All of this was followed by a collegiate cuppa and a biscuit.

If you can help solve our mysteries, please contact Michelle Atwell or Stan Scott on 9883 6031 or Michelle on cdo@cuballing.wa.gov.au

GOLF NOTES - SEPTEMBER 2022

Welcome back to another edition of Golf Notes for 2022.

We kicked off the month of September with the Harrismith Open Day. A couple of diehards who wanted to do the compete circuit for 2022 made their way out and came in with some good results. Nigel Parks & Stu Budd were the combined nett winners of the day coming in with 65 Points to take victory. Also placing on the podium from Cuby was Bevan George & Jaco Moolman in 3rd with a respectable 58 Points.

The annual midweek FFF Golf Day (FarmWorks, Fuel & Fertiliser) was next being held on the 8th of September. It is always a great day with people coming from Perth & the surrounding areas to play. With 62 people taking to the course the day was filled with a great atmosphere. A big thanks goes to Ash Wilkins of FarmWorks Narrogin, Anthony Howe of Fuel Distributors WA & David Hull of Summit Fertilisers for their continued support of the event, plus all other sponsors for their contributions that make the day one to remember for everyone that attended. Congratulation to all winners after the mercy of the wheel and we look forward to seeing everyone back next year!

We rolled into our 5th and final Qualifying Round of the year sponsored by Country Paint Supplies. With perfect weather there was no excuses for a bad round. Some of us were able to rise to the challenge whilst others found the going tough. Winner of the day with a 78 Gross 64 Nett was Lindsay George who pushed himself up into the A Grade in the Club Championships with that result. Runner Up with his best round to date was Jaco Moolman with a 116 Gross 71 Nett. 3rd Place saw Wayne McLeish with an 88 Gross 74 Nett. 4th Nigel Parks with 97 Gross 75 Nett. Ladies winner was Deb Clark with 103 Gross 70 Nett. Runner Up Bree Mumby 125 Gross 90 Nett. Thanks to Country Paint Supplies for their continued support of our club!

The 17th saw Club Championship run & won for the 2022 season. With A to E Grade in the men and the ladies grade there were plenty of people battling it out for Championship Glory. We kicked off early to make sure we beat the darkness. As the fog rolled in golf balls could be heard in all directions. The day eventually brightened up and it was perfect conditions for golf. Congratulations to our Club Champion for 2022, Scott Ballantyne. Taking out the A Grade Final against Rob Harris 3/2. B Grade saw Bevan George take on Chris Bolton, with Bevan taking victory on 4/3. C Grade was down the middle Mike Clark against Wayne McLeish.

Wayne proved too good for Mike and came out victorious 5/4. D Grade saw Mick Anton line up against Cooper George. Cooper emerged the victor on the 18th hole to be one up. E Grade was slogged out between Logan Hayes & Daniel Christensen in a 20 Hole Thriller. Logan sealed the game on the 20th. (Special mention to DC who went to 21 Holes in the morning, playing 41 holes in one day, quite an effort.) Our Ladies' final saw Bree Mumby take on Debby Clark. Debby was able to seal the win being 5/4. Congratulations to all our winners and thanks to the Peanut Gallery for following around and watching the action unfold in the afternoon. It really dose being an element of atmosphere to the day, especially for those of us playing. Special thanks to Jenny for organising the Hot Beef Rolls for afterwards... delicious.

Next month we wrap up the season with our Mixed Championships being this coming Saturday followed by our Closing Day Ambrose on the 8th with AGM to follow from around 4pm.

CUBALLING CRICKET CLUB

Dear Readers,

Over the past few of years I have been trying to compile a list of our B Grade Cricket Captains from 1975-76 .

I am pleased to advise that the list is nearly complete and I wish to thank all those former players etc who have provided names. Some information has been obtained from the Narrogin Observers, photos in the Tavern and from current players and families. Two Captains' names were picked up in the minutes.

Below is a list that has been compiled. The list is fairly correct to the best of my knowledge. The difficult section was from 1999-20 to 2007-08.

If anyone can add a name and a year, or if there is a name and year back to front, please let me know.

It is important for this list to be completed for history purposes.

The A Grade list has also been compiled and a copy is below. There are some queries amongst the names on this list , especially in the early years, however from enquiries made (some time ago), it has been compiled with the information that is available – again from the Observers, etc.

However, if there is anyone who can make corrections, please advise.

Information can be emailed to me: farm1957@outlook.com for phone 9881 1337 (after hours).

I look forward to your thoughts on the above.

Margaret McAuliffe
