IN THE EVENT OF A FIRE CALL 000

Knowing how to call triple zero (000) in an emergency can be the difference between life and death.

The 000 service is the quickest way to get the right emergency service to help you.

It should be used to contact Police, Fire or Ambulance services in life threatening or emergency situations.

When You Call Triple Zero

Calls to 000 are free and can be made from mobile, home and work telephones, and payphones.

- Do you need Police, Fire or Ambulance?
- Stay calm, don't shout, speak slowly and clearly
 - Tell us exactly where to go
- Give an address if you don't know your exact location is there a visual landmark or unusual sound you can tell us about nearby so we can find you?
- Downloading the St John's first responder App which has the exact location coordinates to assist you and the emergency services to locate you.

COUNCIL SHORTS

Cat Local Law

In April this year Council drafted a Cat Local Law. It followed all the statutory procedures and the Local law was adopted in August 2022 and the new rules applies 2 weeks later.

All local laws must be reviewed by the Joint Standing Committee on Delegated Legislation. That review discovered that between the commencement of the process in April 2022 and the final adoption of the Local Law in August 2022 one of the pieces of legislation referenced by the Local Law was repealed and replaced by another Act.

What does it all mean? Until we next review the Local Law we must include an addendum on all copies of the Local Law to explain the correction. The provisions around responsible cat ownership remain in place and enforceable.

Meeting dates for 2023

Every year Council is required to advertise its meeting dates at least once.

Council meetings for 2023 will be held at 2 pm on the third Wednesday of each month except January. All meetings are held in the Council Chambers at 22 Campbell St Cuballing except for the May 2023 meeting which will be held at the Popanyinning Town Hall. All meetings are open to the public and will include the opportunity for public questions and submissions. If you have never been to a Council Meeting maybe add it to your bucket list.

Council also has a Cemeteries advisory Committee which now meets twice a year in April and October.

Cuballing Cemetery

Speaking of Cemeteries, do you know where the bodies are buried at the Cuballing Cemetery? Well as it happens so do we, but in some cases we don't know which is which. Some old records have been lost identifying who is occupying which grave.

The Shire intends to ensure that every grave is marked with details of the occupant, so if you know something please let us know. We will be relying on the best information available to us by 31 December this year to place markers on unmarked graves.

Planning Approval for Panel Beating, Spray Painting and Vehicle Wrecking

Jack O'Connell has been approved to operate a Panel Beating, Spray Painting and Vehicle Wrecking business from his property in Scholars Road in Cuballing. Jack tells us that it will be small scale and will mostly involve restoring old vehicles.

Support for Old Time Dancing

Once a month the Popanyinning Hall comes alive to the sounds and sights of ballroom dancing. At 7.00 pm on the third Saturday of each month the regulars trip the light fantastic on the unique Wandoo dance floor. The event has struggled in recent times and Council has agreed to provide financial support over the next 2 years to keep this iconic event happening. Never been? Another one for the bucket list, and probably a lot more fun than the Council meeting.

Dear Members,

The Village movement is going from strength to strength with about 150 members across Wickepin, Cuballing, Pingelly and Wandering. We have now turned our attention to getting our volunteer and buddy systems up and running.

Many of you have indicated that you would like to provide or receive volunteer and buddy services, available for people who do not have an Aged Care Package, NDIS Plan or access to other funded services.

To get started we need potential volunteers to attend an information and orientation session in each of the communities. As you have indicated an interest in volunteering I am therefore seeking your participation. I will also be inviting other interested people who are not members to join the session.

The information and orientation sessions will be held:

Monday 5th December 2022

Hotham-Williams sub-catchment update

PHCC Working Together
Peel-Harvey Catchment Council

Edition 71
December 2022

NRM is the management of natural resources such as land, water, soils, plants and animals. It brings together land use planning, water management, biodiversity conservation and sustainability of industries such as agriculture, mining, tourism, fisheries and forestry.

Popanyinning – Hard to say, nice to stay!

The small town of Popanyinning is close to the eastern extent of the Peel-Harvey Catchment and home to one of eight Hotham-Williams River Action Plan (RAP) sites which we have been introducing you to in recent months.

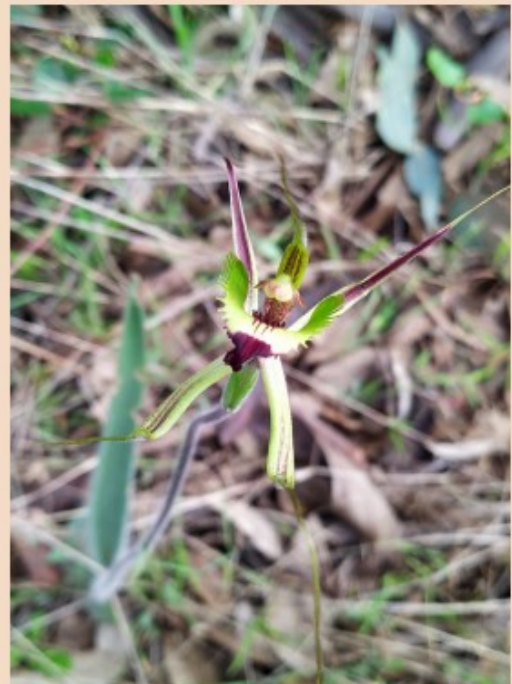

The Hotham River is located between the township to the west and small rural landholdings to the east, in turn bound by broad scale agricultural land in the surrounding landscape. The RAP site spans 1.2km along the River and is characterised by a narrow meandering channel form, scattered tree species and a sparse native shrub layer intermingled with both exotic and native grasses. A large pool existed on the Hotham River close to where the town is now situated, and according to the WA Heritage Committee, the original name of 'Popaning' is a representation of the word for waterhole in the Noongar language.

Weed control has recently been carried out at the site to target bridal creeper and other timely weeds within the area earmarked for strategic effort this season and the use of an all-terrain vehicle by Nexxial Ecology meant that we were not restricted by site conditions. The Popanyinning Progress Association has been working in natural areas along the River for many years, and some of them met with Nexxial Ecology on-site to get the lowdown on the latest control methods for bridal creeper. The group is assisting in an area where they have previously concentrated their efforts, putting a significant dent in the population of this troublesome weed.

By seeking additional funding and partnerships, PHCC would like to increase the scope of weed control efforts in future seasons to assist the natural regeneration of existing native species at the site, including grasses and orchids.

Tim from Nexxial Ecology and PPA members

Hotham-Williams sub-catchment update

Another successful season of Carnaby breeding

Carnaby pairs return to nest in Mandurah and Lake Clifton

In 2021 with the addition of cockatubes on private property we saw an increase in the number of breeding pairs of Carnaby's Black Cockatoos. Recent surveys have seen the same number of pairs of Carnaby's return to known breeding hollows in Mandurah (5 pairs) and Lake Clifton (2 pairs).

Whilst artificial nest tubes placed in the correct locations can provide fantastic alternative breeding hollows they do have their limitations, such as needing to be regularly maintained and monitored. The retention of natural tree hollows is undeniably paramount in preventing a decline in Black Cockatoo populations.

Natural breeding hollows are often found in trees upwards of 150 years old, and with age comes significant risk of collapse. We not only need to protect these veteran trees to keep them upright in the landscape for as long as possible, but also protect the next generation of trees, that will hollow out in time to replace their grandfathers.

You can help by retaining all large trees, fencing trees from stock, and planting small shrubs and ground covers to protect roots, provide ideal soil conditions and avoid compaction.

For more information on protecting your bush for Black Cockatoos click here: <https://www.birdlife.org.au/documents/swbc-BCs-and-your-property.pdf>

The Popanyinning Progress Association is desperately seeking new members after the sudden departure of two members this year.

The PPA are a progressive group who hold community events throughout the calendar year while raising funds to put back into the town. Current projects is the Popanyinning All Weather Shelter which will see the construction of a shelter that will act as a picnic area and band stage for annual Popo Bonfire.

Vacant positions include secretary and general committee members.

If you have any questions about the PPA or want to express an interest in joining please contact President Michelle Atwell on 0427 619 591

SEALED SOULS

540 pages, lavishly illustrated with locations, boats, scenes, people, and maps that will take the reader there.

Come back in time when sealing was the first industry in Australia. An era when displaced people were forcibly transported half a world away, only to displace others in a strange land.

This fascinating book chronicles many of the sordid activities of expired convicts who, as intrepid sealers and sailors, cut a frugal existence on the coastal frontiers of Australia and New Zealand. Many only survived with the help of native women they had either abducted or bartered for.

By 1831, many of these daring characters were chased out of their island camps in Bass Strait and headed westward, island-hopping to the fledgling settlement of Albany where they resurrected a new life hidden behind aliases and deception.

A thought-provoking history that pulls the curtain on the darker beginnings of an embryonic nation.
